THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

NOVEMBER 19, 2017

Theme: Love isn't love unless you give it away. God invests his love in us, trusting that we will invest it in others. Left to ourselves, we would not dare to give such gifts. But God has made us his people, filled with power to risk, to build, to give, to triumph.

“Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you have been faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities.”- Matthew 25:21

God expects us to nurture and develop the gifts He has given us and then generously return a portion with increase. He doesn't want us to waste or hoard the gifts He has given us; He expects us to grow our gifts, use them wisely and be generous with them. Unfortunately, many of us are not generous in proportion to all that God has given us.

A man should hear a little music, read a little poetry, and see a fine picture every day of his life, in order that worldly cares may not obliterate the sense of the beautiful which God has implanted in the human soul.
