THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

March 3 & 4, 2018

Theme: Under the old covenant, the Lord's glory dwelt in the Jerusalem temple. Now his glory shines in the person of Jesus Christ, whose body we are. Like the Jerusalem temple, the body of God's people needs cleansing so his presence may shine forth.

In Nigeria, forced evictions are carried out violently, without consulting those concerned, as well as without warning, compensation, or providing alternative housing. Thanks to your support, the Social & Economic Action Centre, a Development & Peace partner, can train community leaders who then work with some of the most marginalized communities so they can engage in effective dialogue with the government. This year, we invite you to join Development & Peace's monthly giving program Share Year-round. You can register online at www.devp.org/shareyearround.

During Lent, our Friday Mass will be at 6:30 pm followed by Stations of the Cross.

Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for Anointing of the Sick. "You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything..." - Exodus 20:4

How many "gods" do you put before God? "Idols" do not always take the shape of physical things, things we can touch and feel. Those are easy to recognize. Many times they take the form of things we cannot touch and are much harder to spot like pride, power, ego, time, comfort or health.

TF76: Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving Lenten Retreat - Part 3

Our Lenten Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving retreat continues! This week we'll examine almsgiving as an antidote to our propensity to grasp at and possess those things of this world which are intended to be gifts freely given and freely received. As with last week, near the end, we'll take some time to fashion a concrete plan for incorporating this spiritual antidote into our daily lives.

Sacred Heart Community School Art 4 Heart Gala

Sacred Heart Community School would like to invite you to our Art 4 Heart Gala on March 8th. This is our Major fundraiser for our new playground structure. We are inviting all alumni, guests of Sacred Heart and those that would like to celebrate the completion of our gym and support our playground fundraising efforts to come out and see the art we have created. The students have been working hard creating art to share. We have also had wonderful support from our community, with amazing auction items and donations. There will be art and crafts to purchase, silent auction items and raffle items. Some of the items include a Leon Draisaith Oilers jersey, four box seats to a Rider game, and paintings by both Lloyd Dubois and Jason Robins. There are many other items to purchase, bid on or buy raffle tickets for. We hope you can join us for a tour of the school, some snacks, some visiting/sharing of stories and purchase some art created by our students. See you March 8th from 3:30 – 6:00pm.
