

St. Augustine Community School

St. Augustine Community School operates an instructional literacy program after school. Qualified teachers, support staff and volunteers provide 60 minutes of programming twice a week in the area of primary Reading and middle years Mathematics. This program helps engage students and families in the pursuit of literacy excellence. We are inviting members of the parish who wish to join our team of instructional leaders. The commitment would be one or two hours per week from 3:10 – 4:10 pm. The program will have three sessions. September to November, January to March, and April to June. If you are interested in making an impact on our children, and our community, by volunteering for one session, or all; please contact Cari Bondy at St. Augustine at 306-791-7311 or email Cari at c.bondi@rcsd.ca
