The Eucharist and Christian Unity

Our ecumenical agreements on the Eucharist - April 27 & 28

One of the least known achievements of the ecumenical movement is the consensus on the doctrine of the Eucharist. What is the significance of the agreements reached? What does this mean for interchurch families and ecumenical shared ministries? ARCIC and the Archdiocese of Regina are offering a spring workshop on April 27 and 28 to explore the ecumenical agreements on the Eucharist. All churches welcome, no registration required. A free-will offering will be taken to cover meal expenses. For further information contact Nick Jesson, 306-352-1651 or email jesson@ecumenism.net.

ARCIC agreement on Eucharistic Doctrine: Dive into the dialogue with Canon Claude Schroeder and Dr. Brett Salkeld as they explore the Anglican-Roman Catholic agreements. Friday, April 27 at 6 pm at St. Mary the Virgin Anglican Church, 3337 - 15th Ave, Regina. The evening begins with Evensong followed by a light supper. The discussion begins at 7 pm.

Ecumenical Convergence on the Eucharist: Continue the exploration as we break open the bilateral agreements as well as the World Council of Churches' seminal text Baptism, Eucharist, and Ministry. Led by Nick Jesson and a range of local Christian speakers. Saturday, April 28 from 9:30 am to 3 pm at Christ the King RC Parish, 3239 Garnet St, Regina. A light lunch will be provided.
