Return to Vibrancy Announcement:

Although St. Thérèse described herself as a fragile little flower, the notion of doing spiritual battle to save souls held a strong appeal for her. Like a soldier fitted for war she was ready for battle: humility her armour and love her only weapon. She had a faith of mustard seed proportions, enabling her to perform unlimited charitable acts.

St. Thérèse said: "A heart enfolded in Divine love cannot remain inactive."

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making atonement so they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving.

Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs.

To receive a visit from a chaplain, call:

- General Hospital 306-519-1405
- Pasqua Hospital 306-519-1380
- Wascana Rehab Centre 306-530-6511

Please also let your parish know if you've been admitted to the hospital.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit June 16, 2024 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.”

- 2 Corinthians 5:10

We are all accountable for all of the gifts God has given us – our time, our talent and our treasure; everything we have and everything we are. Each of us is accountable not only for our own life but for the lives of others as well. One day, God will ask each of us what we did with the gifts we were given. How will you respond?

Happy Father's Day

As we gather to celebrate Father's Day, we extend our heartfelt wishes to all the fathers, grandfathers, godfathers, and father figures in our parish community. Today, we honor the men who have embraced the essential role of fatherhood with love, dedication, and faith.

Fathers provide guidance, protection, and unwavering support, mirroring the love and care that our Heavenly Father has for each of us. On this special day, let us take a moment to express our gratitude for the fathers in our lives, remembering the sacrifices they make and the unconditional love they offer.

May God bless you abundantly and grant you the strength and wisdom to continue being a source of light and love to your families and our parish community.

Happy Father's Day!
