HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY

JUNE 7, 2020

Theme: Love is the home of God. This Trinity Sunday we recall that our God is a community of lovers. The Father offers us his steadfast love. The Son transforms us into his attractive likeness so we can be his loving presence in the world. The Spirit gifts us with the bond of fellowship, a sign of our deeper bond of love.

This Week in the Parish . . .

Daily Mass intentions as listed below:

Tues., June 9	No Mass intention
Wed., June 10	+Kathleen Wingerter
Thurs., June 11	No Mass intention
Fri., June 12	No Mass intention
Sat., June 13	No Mass Intention

Father Jake will be celebrating daily Mass privately thereby honouring your requests for Mass intentions.

We ask that you please continue to remember the parish with your weekly donations as our basic expenditures are not self-isolating. The bills keep arriving. Your collection envelopes may be placed in a plain white envelope with the name of the parish on the outside and placed in the parish mail box outside the office door. For safety reasons we would prefer that your donation be in the form of a cheque. We will honour that donation as we normally would for the Sunday collection.

We will remember all of you in our prayers during this stressful time.

Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for Anointing of the Sick.

If you or a family member wish to receive a visit from a chaplain, please call: General Hospital 306-519-1405, Pasqua Hospital 306-519-1380, Wascana Rehabilitation Centre 306-530-6511.

Also, please let your parish know if you are entering the hospital.

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making an atonement so that they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses may be requested through the parish office.

If you wish to have the Mass offered on a specific date, please make arrangements at least one month in advance.

““For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son...” (John 3:16)

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love and forgiveness? Are you generous with your time, skills, money, and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you “fit it in” when it’s convenient for you? God desires a personal relationship with us so much that He gave us His Son, unconditionally! Pray for a grateful and generous heart.

Prayer Ministry

Please pray for the needs of the sick of our parish, the homebound, those who are affected by COVID-19 and the healthy professionals working on the front line, those in nursing homes and those who care for them, especially: John Frei, Florence Barrow, Germain Beaurivage, Jack Gebert, Martha Hanoski, Dean Hutchence, Mary Kish, Judy Klenk, Don Morrell, Claudia Sali, Ron Strassburger, and Louise Wingerter.

COVID-19 Update

We will be reopening for Masses beginning June 13th for a maximum of 30 people. If you would like to come for Mass, please call or email the parish Office Administrator( contact on the first page).

Fred & Anita Wagman—June 8—61 years

Richest blessings to all our couples. You are a particular witness of God’s love and fidelity amongst us!

A Celebration of the Word of God Resource

St. Therese Institute of Faith and Mission in Bruno, Saskatchewan, Canada, is happy to make available an easy-to-follow guide, designed for use in the home--the domestic church--by the lay faithful, to help families and other small groups enter into daily reflection on the Word of God and Spiritual Communion.
