Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for Anointing of the Sick.

If you or a family member wish to receive a visit from a chaplain, please call: General Hospital 306-519-1405, Pasqua Hospital 306-519-1380, Wascana Rehabilitation Centre 306-530-6511.

Also, please let your parish know if you are entering the hospital.

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making an atonement so that they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses may be requested through the parish office.

If you wish to have the Mass offered on a specific date, please make arrangements at least one month in advance.

 "Everything I have is yours." (Luke 15:31)
Our Heavenly Father gives us everything, including the chance to share in His eternal kingdom. Yet, like the Prodigal Son we are often lured away by the materialism of our society. Do we really want to turn our backs on all that God offers in exchange for a material wealth that has no lasting value?

TF156: Eucharist PEW Study Hullabaloo-Part 1

Wherein Deacon Eric and Brett wade into the recent PEW Study on the Eucharist which claimed nearly 2/3rds of Catholics do not believe in Christ's Real Presence in the Eucharist. In this part 1 of 3 they'll discuss what this most recent study asked, didn't ask, could have asked. Trying to get to the bottom of a Eucharistic Hullabaloo this week on Thinking Faith!

Season of Creation 2019 Prayer

Creator of Life,

The Earth is full of Your creatures, and by Your wisdom you made them all. At Your word, the Earth brought forth plants yielding seed of every kind and trees of every kind bearing fruit, the waters teemed with swarms of living creatures of every kind, and the world was filled with every kind of winged bird, walking animal, and creatures that creep upon the ground.

Mountains, plains, rocks, and rivers shelter diverse communities, and through the changing seasons, Your Spirit renews cycles of life.

During this Season of Creation, open our eyes to see the precious diversity that is all around us. Enlighten our minds to appreciate the delicate balance maintained by each creature. Inspire us to conserve the precious habitats that nurture this web of life.

In the name of the One who came to proclaim good news to all creation, Jesus Christ.

Amen.

The staff and students of St. Augustine and Jean Vanier Schools would like to thank Father Jake and the Little Flower Parish community for hosting and celebrating with us the opening of another school year. On Friday, September 6th, students, staff and community members joined in song, prayer, and thanksgiving as we opened the school year with Jesus in our actions, on our minds, and in our hearts. We were thrilled to have this opportunity to meet Father Jake and hear his words of love and inspiration in his Homily, as he gave us lots to think about to take into the school year together. We look forward to the year ahead and thank the community members for coming out to worship with us too.
