LITTLE FLOWER PARISH

25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SEPTEMBER 22ND, 2024

Theme: “Whoever welcomes a child welcomes me”, says the Lord. But a child is burden as well as blessing, annoyance as much as delight. Jesus holds out his arms to embrace both sides of the child in each of us, and bids us do likewise.

Contact the office to request a Mass for your loved ones. The agenda for 2024 Mass requests is open

Mass intentions for this week are:

Tues. 24 +Repose of Ray Klemchuk
Wed. 25 No Mass Int.
Thu. 26 No Mass Int.
Fri. 27 +Repose of Kathleen Wingerter
Sat. 28 +Repose of Mary Dyck

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the “communion of saints,” the Church commends the dead to God’s mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making atonement so they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving.

Return to Vibrancy Announcement:

St. Thérèse of Lisieux wrote of her profound love for the priesthood. One of the greatest desires of her soul was to have a brother who was a priest. This was not God’s plan for her family. Instead, the Lord brought two young men who were preparing to become missionary priests into her life. St. Thérèse became a spiritual sister to Abbe Maurice Belliere and Pere Adolph Roulland. Through the deep spiritual bond they shared in Christ, they understood the power of prayer and the offering of penances. St. Thérèse said: “Miss no single opportunity of making some small sacrifice. Do the smallest thing and always do it all for love.”

Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs.

To receive a visit from a chaplain, call:

- General Hospital 306-519-1405
- Pasqua Hospital 306-519-1380
- Wascana Rehab Centre 306-530-6511

Please also let your parish know if you’ve been admitted to the hospital.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit
September 22, 2024
25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Mark 9:35

Jesus teaches us that we are called to love one another. Love involves sacrifice. Sacrifice is a word that many of us don't like to hear. We think it means that we must give up something that we want. However, the literal meaning of sacrifice is "to make holy," from the words "sacer" = sacred and "facere" = to make. In other words, when we sacrifice, we make our lives holy by sharing our gifts in the service of God.

Feast of St. Therese

Join us on October 1st at 4:00 PM to celebrate the Feast of St. Therese, our patron saint.

The evening will include a procession, Mass, and a small reception downstairs afterward.

We look forward to sharing this special occasion with you!

TF #419: "Pilgrims of Hope" ArchRegina Congress 2024 with Deacon Eric Gurash and Lisa Polk

Deacon Eric Gurash sits down with Director of Pastoral Services and Operations Lisa Polk to discuss the upcoming ArchRegina Congress, "Pilgrims of Hope," taking place Saturday, September 21, at Resurrection Parish in Regina. They'll discuss the changing dynamics and demographics of the Church in the Archdiocese of Regina and the ways that this year's Congress will explore the future vision of our Catholic churches in Southern Saskatchewan. thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/pilgrims-of-hope-archregina-congress-2024-with-deacon-eric-gurash-and-lisa-polk

Go Make Disciples

The Archdiocese of Regina's Lay Formation Program has been providing well-formed, evangelizing disciples for over 35 years. Our alumni serve as leaders in liturgical and catechetical roles, as well as in pastoral and other parish groups, teams, and committees. Join our program and become part of this community of leaders. Our Fall intake starts this November, with weekend sessions held monthly at Campion College. Register now to deepen your understanding of Church and faith and discern how best to offer your God-given gifts and talents in service. For more information on how to register, please contact our Program Coordinator, Deacon Eric Gurash at 306-721-6724 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca.

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

September 30th is the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation to honour survivors, their families, and communities. The Catholic Church has a significant role and responsibility for Truth and Reconciliation in Canada. We'd like to encourage you to look for events in your community that you can participate in today or find other ways to educate yourself on truth and reconciliation. The office of the Archdiocese of Regina will be closed on Monday, September 30 in honour of this day.
