26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SEPTEMBER 27, 2020

Theme: Responsibility is a sign of God's love for us. He has created us free and invites us to love. We often deny that responsibility and seek to evade it. But the Lord constantly calls us. He asks us to commit ourselves to the mystery of death and resurrection.

This Week in the Parish . . .

Daily Mass intentions as listed below:

Tues., September 29	+Repose of Leo Goski
Wed., September 30	+Repose of Leo Goski
Thurs., October 1	+Repose of Peter Smidt
Fri., October 2	+Repose of Kathleen Wingerter
Sat., October 3	+Repose of Mary Dyck

Weekday Lector/Altar Server: Gabe Seiferling

A complete list of daily Mass intentions (October) may be found on the parish website.

Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for Anointing of the Sick.

If you or a family member wish to receive a visit from a chaplain, please call: General Hospital 306-519-1405, Pasqua Hospital 306-519-1380, Wascana Rehabilitation Centre 306-530-6511.

Also, please let your parish know if you are entering the hospital.

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making an atonement so that they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses may be requested through the parish office.

If you wish to have the Mass offered on a specific date, please make arrangements at least one month in advance.

“Do nothing out of selfishness; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves ...” (Philippians 2:3)

Pride and ego are hard things to control. We see how others act or dress and think we are superior to them. We idolize our own self-image. But, if we truly believe everything is a gift from God, we recognize all the people that God has put in our lives as gifts! We are grateful for how they enrich our lives. Pray every day for the people in your life: your family, your friends, and those who make you angry.

Leaders needed

Do you have a gift for hospitality? Are you looking to be part of a small community of young adults who can come together around a shared interest? (Jogging? Dancing? Movies? Art? Parenting?) If so, then the Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministry needs you! We are looking to create a wide variety of small groups for young adults, but we need people willing to commit to leading for a period of 8 weeks. Each group will have a social/shared interest component and a faith component. We will help with all of it! All we need is your willingness to serve. If you are interested, please email us at oyyam@archregina.sk.ca

Archdiocese of Regina Pastoral Centre Re-Opens

As of September 1, 2020, the Pastoral Centre, including the chancery offices, are open to the public. Staff are working in the offices while following health directives re: cleaning, physical distancing and number of people gathering/meeting. To enter the Pastoral Centre, please park near the Broad Street main entrance door or the southeast parking lot door, then ring the doorbell and staff will be happy to welcome you into the building.

Prayer Ministry

Please pray for the needs of the sick of our parish, the homebound, those who are affected by COVID-19 and the health professionals working on the front line, those in nursing homes and those who care for them, especially: Florence Barrow, Germain Beaurivage, Jack Gebert, Dean Hutchence, Judy Klenk, Don Morrell, Claudia Sali, Ron Strassburger, and Louise Wingerter.

Richard & Patricia Coderre—September 27—45 years

Richest blessings to all our couples. You are a particular witness of God’s love and fidelity amongst us!

COVID-19 Update

We are open for Masses for a maximum of 65 people. If you would like to come for Mass, please call or email the parish Office Administrator (contact on the first page) until Thursdays. You don’t need to book for weekdays

Vocation View

“Actions speak louder than words. What are your actions saying? Can your word be trusted? Turning from evil and doing good is what God wants.” (Matthew 21:28-32)

During this difficult time, your parish needs you!

Covid 19 has limited how we are able to gather. However, our parishes have regular and ongoing expenses. Although you may not be attending Mass, these expenses still remain. During this time, it’s prudent to consider how you might support your parish.

Your cheque can be mailed to Little Flower Parish or left in the parish office mail box (no cash please). OR Your donation can be made to your parish through the Archdiocese of Regina by:

- Pre-authorized direct debit
- E-Transfer
- Offline by cheque
- By phone
- Credit card

Visit our Giving Page at <https://archregina.sk.ca/giving> for more information on how you can continue to support your parish.

THANK YOU to those who continue to support the parish through their weekly collection envelopes.

Archbishop's Appeal

We are very pleased to announce the start of the 21st Archbishop's Appeal. Our theme for this year's campaign is Hope in Every Season. You should begin receiving information and donation cards in the mail or email next week. You are also invited to follow the campaign online through the website or by joining the Archbishop's Appeal newsletter (see: archregina.sk.ca).

We encourage you to spend time offering thanks to our God and Father for all God has given, and prayerfully a donation that would not be burdensome but would express your hope for the future of our church.

TF210: On Catholic Writing with Brendan Hodge - Part 2

Continuing our conversation with Catholic writer and blogger Brendan Hodge on his new book "If You Can Get It" from Ignatius Press and what it means to be a 'Catholic' writer. Show Snippet: "I mean, I think we find ourselves at a time right now where a lot of people are struggling with their daily routines being upended...and I think it does cause people to pause and ask really why is it we do the things that we do?"

Life Chain

Please join us as we prayerfully witness to the dignity and importance of all life on Sunday, Oct 4, 2:00 to 3:00pm.

This year, we will be meeting on the West side of Albert St in the green space by the Large Grasshopper just off Leopold Cr. We will maintain physical distancing rules, grab signs and distance out along Albert St for our hour of prayerful witness to LIFE. Please bring your own hand sanitizer and masks, if you wish to wear them. Due to covid rules, we are unable to offer food or drinks this year. Please park on the West side of Albert St on or around Leopold Cr and not in the Museum parking lot.

Non-credit course at Campion: A Closer Look at the Gospel of Luke

Tuesdays from 1 to 2 pm, September 22 to November 24
Let's explore the Gospel of Luke together! We'll do a deeper dive into both the literary and historical aspects. It will be done through short lectures virtually through UR-Courses. You should have a University of Regina email address to log in so this is ideal for both current and former UofR and Campion students. There is no charge for the course, but there is an optional resource book for $10. For more information, contact Campion Campus Minister Kelly Bourke at kelly.bourke@uregina.ca or register at <https://campioncollege.ca/gospel-of-luke-reg/>.
