Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for Anointing of the Sick.

If you or a family member wish to receive a visit from a chaplain, please call: General Hospital 306-519-1405, Pasqua Hospital 306-519-1380, Wascana Rehabilitation Centre 306-530-6511.

Also, please let your parish know if you are entering the hospital.

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making an atonement so that they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses may be requested through the parish office.

If you wish to have the Mass offered on a specific date, please make arrangements at least one month in advance.

“...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.” (Luke 18:14)

Pride and ego are the root cause of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable, your talent is better than anyone else’s and your money gives you status is another way of making those things “gods” before God. Remember all those gifts were God-given. Instead we should be humbled by God’s abundant generosity and our hearts should overflow with gratitude.

Prayer Ministry

Please pray for the needs of the sick of our parish, the homebound, those in nursing homes and those who care for them, especially: Florence Barrow, Germain Beurivage, Jack Gebert, Dean Hutchence, Mary Kish, Don Morrell, Claudia Sali, Kathleen Wingerter and Louise Wingerter. Please also, keep in your prayers all who are grieving the death of a loved one.

CWL Fall Craft and Bake Sale

Attention Bakers, Sewers, Knitters and Craft Enthusiasts!

Tables are $25 each and can be booked by calling Tracy at 306-209-1566.

World Mission Sunday

Thank you very much for your generous contribution to last week’s World Mission Sunday collection. This support is a blessing for the Bishops, the Priests, the Sisters, the Brothers and the Lay Catechists who depend on this help from the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Please continue to pray for those who serve in mission countries so that they may remain steadfast in their vocation to bring Christ’s message of love to those they serve.

Richest blessings to all our couples. You are a particular witness of God’s love and fidelity amongst us!

Ray & Charlotte Boulanger—October 27—46 years
 Ovide & Pauline Boyer—October 29—62 years
 Les & Mary Kish—October 30—59 years

God bless and give all the virtues to make stronger the commitment of your Matrimony!

All Souls Triduum

We will have a Triduum of Masses for our departed loved ones starting Thursday, October 31 at 8am, Friday, November 1 at 8am and Saturday, November 2 at 5pm when we will celebrate our All Souls Memorial Mass.

Pray the Rosary together

October is the month of Rosary and to celebrate we will be praying before Sunday Mass as a community and you are welcome to join us.

Vocation View

“Be humble and allow God to do great things through you.” (Luke 18:9-14)

Archbishop's Appeal

In Jesus' Parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector, the Pharisee exhibits all the good and respectable qualities. The Tax Collector is just the opposite, both a traitor of his people and a greedy cheat who takes more than his due. But God accepts the prayer of the Tax Collector and not the Pharisee's. Why? Because the Pharisee is busy praising his own goodness and is concerned only about his opinion of himself. The Tax Collector, knowing what sort of person he is, asks God for mercy and forgiveness.

In the reading from 2 Timothy, St. Paul also mentions some of his sufferings and declares, "I have kept the faith." But it's clear that he knows that it's only through the strength that God provided that he was able to do this, not his own strength.

Of course, we're called to reject sin, but these readings can remind us that Jesus died to make us holy, not respectable, and he taught, "Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Our discipleship of the Lord, like sharing our resources with the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal, is a grateful response to God's generosity to us, not an attempt to impress others – or ourselves. Prayer of Intercession:

For the grace to see ourselves as channels of God's mercy to others by our contribution to the Archbishop's Appeal, let us pray to the Lord.

Contributions to date—$7,495 from 43 contributors. This represents 28% of our target of $26,473 from 10% of our parishioners. Thank you for your generosity. Thank you also to those of you who have returned your cards, however we will have not received 88% (383) of the cards that were mailed.

IMPORTANT NOTE FOR SACRAMENT PREPARATION:

Reconciliation preparation will begin on Sunday, October 27 @ 4:00 pm

TF162: Resisting Throwaway Culture with Dr. Charlie Camosy - Part 4

In our fourth and final chat with Dr. Charles Camosy of Fordham University, we examine issues of ecology, ethical farming, poverty, and government-sanctioned violence. How does our #throwawayculture infect each of these areas and can a consistent life ethic provide a holistic antidote? The doctor is in, this week on Thinking Faith!

Reflection

Is not God my Father? Then of course I can tell Him all my hopes and worries, big or small, with filial trust and the assurance of being heard.

I have no need of many words. My all-knowing and loving Father will always give me what is necessary for my temporal and spiritual life.

Have a blessed week!
