Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for Anointing of the Sick.

If you or a family member wish to receive a visit from a chaplain, please call: General Hospital 306-519-1405, Pasqua Hospital 306-519-1380, Wascana Rehabilitation Centre 306-530-6511.

Also, please let your parish know if you are entering the hospital.

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making an atonement so that they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses may be requested through the parish office.

If you wish to have the Mass offered on a specific date, please make arrangements at least one month in advance.

“...Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us.”
 (2 Thessalonians 3:9)

Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don't go around bragging about it. But through their actions and words, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and other people desire this in their own life. Know that the way you live your life may be the only interaction others have with our Catholic faith.

Vocation View

“Patient endurance will see you through to the end. God will give you the wisdom and the words to speak. What is holding you back from a wholehearted “yes”?” (Luke 20:27-38)

Archbishop's Appeal

Jesus predicted that the Jerusalem Temple, beautiful as it was, would be destroyed. He then went on to speak of wider turmoil among the nations, throughout the natural world, and in the heavens.

But before the end, the Day of the Lord, which will bring judgment on evil and healing to the faithful, there will be a long period which will be marked by rejection, persecution, and even execution for faith in Christ. However, he urged perseverance to secure our eternal life.

St. Paul wrote to tell us in this waiting period, we should carry on our daily tasks and work, taking responsibility to support ourselves. That keeps disorder out of the Christian community, and leads us to a quiet yet active life of faith in which we share our time, talent, and treasure to serve Christ and his Church. [Adapted from: <http://www.catholicsteward.com/2010/11>]

Prayer of Intercession:

We all know that what we have are the means and opportunities to prepare for that day Christ comes in glory at the end time. May God's grace of wisdom fill us to share what we have with the less fortunate through our support of the Archbishop's Appeal. Let us pray to the Lord.

Contributions to date—$19,355 from 103 contributors. This represents 73% of our target of $26,473 from 23% of our parishioners. Thank you for your generosity. Thank you also to those of you who have returned your cards, however we will have not received 74% (324) of the cards that were mailed.

TF165: Film, Literature, and Faith with Guest Patrick Malone - Part 1

With nearly $180 billion spent on film and literature around the world in the past year, it's easy to see how deeply ingrained the desire for story and narrative is in the human heart. In the midst of all the conversation around the favorite films of friends and family, what might our Catholic faith have to contribute? We're talking film, literature, and faith this week on Thinking Faith! <http://thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/tf165-film-literature-and-faith-with-guest-patrick-malone-part-1>

A Day of Remembrance for our War Veterans

Grief Share

It hurts to lose someone but you don't have to go through the grieving process alone.

Weekly sessions: Tuesdays 2 – 4 p.m., January 21 – April 7, 2020. Christ the King Parish, 3239 Garnet St., Parish Centre. Grief Share is a friendly, caring group of people who will walk alongside you through one of life's most difficult experiences. Our sessions are led by people who understand what you are going through and want to help. You'll gain access to valuable resources to help you recover from your loss. What others are saying: "I am thankful to find a group that that knows how I feel" - "Helped me simply get through each day" - "Grief Share literally saved my life!" "I am thankful to find a group that knows how I feel". For more information, or to register, contact: Linda Lucyk, Pastoral Care Coordinator 306-539-6889 lindalucyk@sasktel.net.

Movie Sunday

It is this Sunday, November 17 at 1:30pm in the parish auditorium. Come to join us and learn more about our beloved Canadian saint, Andre Bassette, otherwise known as the "Miracle Man of Montreal".

Have a Blessed week!

"If a man is true to my word he shall never see death."

~ Jn 8:51
