Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for Anointing of the Sick.

If you or a family member wish to receive a visit from a chaplain, please call: General Hospital 306-519-1405, Pasqua Hospital 306-519-1380, Wascana Rehabilitation Centre 306-530-6511.

Also, please let your parish know if you are entering the hospital.

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). This practice dates as far back as Judas collecting a sin-offering for the dead, making an atonement so that they might be delivered from their sin. (2 Maccabees 12:39-45). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses may be requested through the parish office.

If you wish to have the Mass offered on a specific date, please make arrangements at least one month in advance.

The Most Holy Trinity

"The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ..."
- Romans 8:16-17

If we are heirs to the kingdom of God, shouldn't we work to build up His kingdom? Shouldn't we be good stewards of our inheritance, using our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to care for the Church that God has left to us? Our Church is a treasured heirloom from God. Do we treat it that way?

Ready To Work - Introduction to Culinary Arts

Catholic Family Services Regina – Newcomer Career and Support Services in partnership with Tourism Saskatchewan are organizing a course on Ready To Work - Introduction to Culinary Arts (Prep Cook/Kitchen Helper). 2 Corinthians 13:14

During this difficult time, your parish needs you!

Covid19 has limited how we are able to gather. However, our parishes have regular and ongoing expenses. Although you may not be attending Mass, these expenses still remain. During this time, it's prudent to consider how you might support your parish. Your cheque can be mailed to Little Flower Parish or left in the parish office mail box (no cash please). OR Your donation can be made to your parish through the Archdiocese of Regina by:

- Pre-authorized direct debit
- E-Transfer
- Offline by cheque
- By phone
- Credit card

Visit our Giving Page at <https://archregina.sk.ca/giving> for more information on how you can support your parish. THANK YOU to those who continue to support the parish through their weekly collection envelopes.

Leave no one behind: Vaccine equity in the Global South

Tuesday, June 15 – 11:30 am to 1:00 p.m. (EDT)
Zoom Webinar - Join us for a discussion on the barriers to access COVID-19 vaccines for the world's poorest people with internationally renowned speakers Fr Charles Chilufya SJ, Dr Sunita Narain, Dr Katrina Plamondon and Dr Jeffrey Sachs. COVID-19 has revealed the inequalities between the Global North and the Global South with only 0.1% of people in low-income countries vaccinated. Canadian Jesuits International supports the global campaign for vaccine equity through a waiver of certain provisions of the Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (TRIPS) Agreement at the World Trade Organization (WTO).

Now it Springs Forth: Looking for Ecumenical Movement with Fresh Eyes

Rev. Canon Dr. Scott Sharman will present the 2021 De Margerie Lecture on Christian Reconciliation and Unity. This year's De Margerie lecture (named in honour of Fr. Bernard de Margerie, who established the Prairie Centre for Ecumenism in Saskatoon) is entitled "Now it Springs Forth: Looking for Ecumenical Movement with Fresh Eyes." Featuring guest speaker Rev. Canon Dr. Scott Sharman, the lecture will be presented online from 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, June 16 co-hosted by St. Thomas More College, St. Andrew's College, and the Prairie Centre for Ecumenism. The link to register (free) for the event is <https://bit.ly/2Qj4K8h>

The 2021 De Margerie Lecture is part of the ReJUNEvation program at St. Andrew's College. More info at standrews.ca <https://stu.usask.ca/standrews/students/rejuvenation.php>

Guest speaker: Born and raised in Edmonton, the Rev. Canon Dr. Scott Sharman is the Animator for the Ecumenical and Interfaith Relations for the Anglican Church of Canada. His primary work and ministry today is coordinating the Anglican Church of Canada's ecumenical partnerships with various churches at the national level, including bilateral dialogues and commissions with the Evangelical Lutheran, Mennonite, United and Roman Catholic traditions, as well as working closely with the twenty-six Christian denominations which are members of the multilateral coalition known as the Canadian Council of Churches. He also represents the Anglican Church of Canada in a number of capacities in the interfaith context, working especially in the areas of Christian-Muslim and Christian-Jewish relations.

TF247: Teaching English in a Catholic School with Dr. Dan Guernsey

This week we discuss teaching English in a Catholic school with Dr. Dan Guernsey K-12 School principal in Ave Maria Florida and senior fellow at the Cardinal Newman Society promoting faithful Catholic Education.

Show Snippet: "Especially with children's literature...surrounding them with literature that is more ennobling...but if all you're doing day after day is teaching kids this darkness and despair, that's problematic."
