SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JANUARY 16, 2022

Theme: There is something unique about each of us. Each person here enshrines a particular facet of the richness of God. But this diversity can lead to differences. It is the Spirit of unity who guarantees that our different gifts are for the good of all. That same Spirit leads us to recognize that we need each other if we are to share the fullness of God's love.

Hospital Chaplains

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for Anointing of the Sick. If you or a family member wish to receive a visit from a chaplain, please call: General Hospital 306-519-1405, Pasqua Hospital 306-519-1380, Wascana Rehabilitation Centre 306-530-6511.

Offering of the Mass

By virtue of the "communion of saints," the Church commends the dead to God's mercy and offers her prayers especially the holy sacrifice of the Eucharist, on their behalf. (Catechism of the Catholic Church). Masses may also be offered for the intentions of the living or in thanksgiving. Masses may be requested through the parish office. If you'd like to offer a mass on a specific date, please make arrangements at least one month in advance.

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time - January 16, 2022

"To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit."

1 Corinthians 12:7

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God's plan? How are you helping to build God's kingdom here on earth? Remember that if you don't do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it. Live the life God has intended for you. Take time to discern your charism (gifts from the Holy Spirit). Experience the supernatural Peace and Joy God desires for each of us.

Food Drive

Thank you for all the donations for our Food Drive last week. You are sharing your treasure with those around you. God Bless you, today and always!

Little Flower Social Justice Committee

Over the next three weekends (beginning January 16) we will be collecting men's underwear and socks for the Marian Centre. There is a particular need for these items, especially during the winter months. Warm winter socks, long underwear (medium & large sizes) and underwear (briefs and boxers in medium & large sizes) are suggested items. The Food Drive cart will be available for your donation. Thank you for considering and donating to help someone stay warm this winter.

Archbishop's Annual Appeal to Date

Your gift to the Archbishop's Appeal helps others on their faith journey by funding the ministries and services that make these transformations possible.

As each of us reach out to help the next person we all experience God's love and abundant blessings.

Thank you for your trust in God's unbinding love and for your life-giving support. May God bless you all.

"I'm not relying on my own merits, as I have none, but I put my hope in Him who is goodness and holiness Himself."

~ St. Therese of Lisieux

TF279: Dr. Brett Salkeld and Dan Shervan: Somewhat of a Catholic - Part 1

Dr. Brett sits down with local writer and newest contributor to Archregina News, Dan Shervan, discussing his unique perspectives on faith, spirituality, and religion as part of his personal journey of faith.

"People will often talk about 'Catholic guilt' and how that's so bad, but to me it's not 'Catholic guilt', humans just have that, and I think it increases as you get older and you start to notice your failings more and more and more..." <https://thinkingfaith.libsyn.com/dr-brett-salkeld-and-dan-shervan-somewhat-of-a-catholic-part-1>

The 2022 theme for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, "We saw the star in the East, and we came to worship him" (Mt 2:2), was prepared by the Middle East Council of Churches, based in Beirut, Lebanon. The international theme and resources speak to our world's urgent need for solidarity and transformation in the face of political, economic, and social turmoil, including the challenges and injustices highlighted by the COVID-19 pandemic. As we join the Christians of the Middle East in the journey to Christ's manger, may we become a sign of the unity that God desires for all creation, and may we return to our home, our churches, and our world by new ways.
