

Theme: July 7 to 28.

July 7, 2019 - 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“He said to them, ‘The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...’” (Luke 10:2)
As Catholics we are all called to serve. However, many of us are unsure of what our charismas or gifts from the Holy Spirit are to help build God’s Church. Through prayer we are able to discern how God is calling us. The next time your pastor or fellow parishioner asks you to join a committee, ask God first, if that is what He wants you to do with your gifts.

July 14, 2019 - 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’” (Luke 10:37)
This was Jesus’ command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other. The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know or someone that looks different than you or someone that you don’t like. All without expecting anything in return.

July 21, 2019 - 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“...I am a minister in accordance with God’s stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God.” (Colossians 1:25)
We are all called to evangelize – to continuously grow in our relationship with Jesus and to share it with others. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith with those closest to us, like our family, friends and neighbors. Pray for the courage to share your faith the next time the opportunity arises.

July 28, 2019 - 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you” (Luke 11:9)
Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. Many people need very little. However, we usually want so much more. A good steward only asks God for what he needs.

Outdoor adventures, canoes, swimming, capture the flag, and campfire sing-along - it is camp the way you remember it! The Kenosee Boys and Girls Camp is accepting registrations for their July camps. We offer both girl’s camp (ages 6 – 14), and co-ed camps (ages 6 – 14) throughout July. Our camp fosters kid’s connection to nature, god, and their community all while having the best week of their summer. Learn more and register ONLINE (www.campkenosee.net), or contact Michael Paul at campkenosee@gmail.com or (306) 577-4624.

The Archdiocese of Regina is seeking a part-time Catechesis Coordinator:

The job description can be found at: <https://archregina.sk.ca/employment> . Resumes and cover letter should be submitted by July 26th to Leona Burkhart at lburkhart@archregina.sk.ca. If you have questions, you may contact Leona at that address, or Lisa Polk at lpolk@archregina.sk.ca.

Thank You!

The Archdiocese of Regina Youth Ministry office, would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to the many folks, from many parishes who came out this year’s Variety Night Show. Your support of this fundraiser and of our young people is greatly appreciated. Thanks to all who contributed in any way and a special thank you to Resurrection Parish for their exceptional hospitality.

Laughter...

A father was at the beach with his children when the 4 year old son ran up to him, grabbed his hand and led him to the shore where a seagull lay dead in the sand. ‘Daddy, what happened to him?’ the son asked. ‘He died and went to Heaven’, the Dad replied. The boy thought a moment and then said, ‘Did God throw him back down?’

Reflection

“Do everything for Love. Thus there will be no little things: everything will be big. Perseverance in little things for Love is heroism.”
